EVIDENCE CIRCUMSTANTIAL.

Two Men Charged With Murder at Chicago.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—James Redmond, alias William O'Neil, and Arthur Tibbetts have been arrested on a charge of complicity in the murders committed in the barns of the Chicago City Railway company a week ago. The evidence against Redmond is circumstantial, the chief part of it being his heavy expenditure of money during the last week.

Redmond formerly lived in Kansas City and was tried there in 1900 for the murder of a girl. He was acquitted of the charge.

Tibbetts was arrested because Redmond was living in his house.

SEIZED BY POLICEMEN.

Hoboken Man Persisted in Following President Roosevelt.

New York, Sept. 8.—A powerfully built man caused considerable excitement as President Roosevelt was about to board the train in Hoboken for his trip to Syracuse by persistently trying to follow and making several efforts to speak to the chief executive.

He was seized by the chief of police of Hoboken and two policemen and hustled into a waiting room, where he was searched. He was found to be unarmed, and was released.

VICTIMS NUMBER SIX.

Two More Persons Die as a Result of a Collision.

Lowell, Mass., Sept. 8.—Two additional victims of the trolley car collision at Pelham, N. H., Sunday, died during the day. The list of dead now number six, with the possibility of two being added to it. Those who just died were Mrs. Sylvia Gilbert of Nashua, N. H.; Mrs. Mary Dillon of West Bradford, N. H.

CIRCUS TENT BLOWS DOWN.

One Hundred Persons Injured at Anthony, Kan.

Anthony, Kan., Sept. 8.—During a severe wind storm Robinson's circus tent was blown down. An immense crowd of people were in the menagerie and when the poles came down with the canvas one hundred persons were hurt. Price Joyner was probably fatally injured. Animal cages were overturned, some falling on people. None of the animals escaped.

TO SHOOT ROOSEVELT

GERMAN WHO THREATENED THE PRESIDENT'S LIFE ARRESTED AT SYRACUSE, N. Y.

HELD FOR AN INVESTIGATION

POLICE CLAIM THE SUSPECT INTENDED TO FIRE DURING THE MAIL CARRIERS' PARADE.

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 8.—John Miller, a German, was arrested during the afternoon at his home and is charged with having threatened to shoot the president during his stay in this city. Sunday evening the police learned that a man named Miller, living in the southwestern part of the city, had said that he would shoot the president while the letter carriers' parade was in review. They could find no trace of the man until late in the afternoon, when he was arrested. He denies that he made threats against the president's life and says a woman, through whom the police learned of him, is lying. When questioned at police headquarters he was unable to give a clear explanation of his whereabouts since Sunday morning. He is held pending a more thorough investigation.

KILLED HIS FRIEND.

Stockman Murders His Chum in a Drinking Recort.

Livingston, Mont., Sept. 8.—What appears to have been a cold-blooded murder without any extenuating circumstances, occurred in a saloon at Clyde, thirty miles distant, when Edward Proffitt shot and instantly killed Samuel Lee, his former chum and boon companion.

Proffitt and Lee are among the best known stockmen in Montana, and both are well to do. Proffitt surrendered himself to the authorities immediately after the shooting, and is now confined in a cell in the county jail.

The two men had been drinking and a quarrel arose as to who should run a dance to be given by Lee. When Lee declared that Proffitt must come as a guest and nothing more, it is said Proffitt drew his gun and without warning fired two shots at close range into the body of Lee, who expired at the feet of his assailant. The tragedy has caused a sensation.

KILLED IN STREET BRAWL.

St. Paul Man Struck on the Head With a Stone.

St. Paul, Sept. 8.—As the result of a brawl Sunday night, Otto C. Kirchhoff, twenty-one years old, died during the morning at the city hospital. Kirchhoff was struck in the head by a large stone and received a fracture of the skull.

The killing of Kirchhoff resulted from an altercation between two crowds of men who met at the corner of Kent and Lafond streets, and who, after exchanging hot words, threw stones at each other. Seven young men who comprised one of the crowds are being held by the police pending the result of the coroner's inquest.

ACCUSED OF BIGAMY.

Clergyman Arrested on Complaint of His Wife.

Des Moines, Sept. 8.—Rev. F. C. Lomack has been arrested on a charge of bigamy upon information of his wife, from whom he is trying to secure a divorce on the charge of intimacy with his brother. Mrs. Lomack asserts her husband was married to Mary Garlan at the time he married her. The court records here show his marriage to both women, but show no divorce proceedings. Mrs. Lomack has filed a cross petition accusing her evangelist husband of drunkenness and cruel and inhuman treatment.

THREE MEN KILLED.

Several Others Wounded in a Battle at a Camp Meeting.

Somerset, Ky., Sept. 8.—Three men were killed and several wounded in a battle at a camp meeting at Mount Victory, near here. Services were in progress when William Bolton, a constable, attempted to arrest two men named Richmond. A fight followed, in which Bolton, though wounded, shot and killed both the Richmonds and was himself killed by Columbus Garrison. Several persons were wounded by stray shots. Officers are searching for Garrison.

QUARRELED OVER A WOMAN.

Council Bluffs Grocer Stabs a Rival to Death.

Omaha, Sept. 7.—In a quarrel over a woman Charles Ellsworth, a Council Bluffs grocer, stabbed David Houser, also of that city, who died soon after. Ellsworth and a woman named May Burns were later arrested.

Girl Takes Paris Green.

Fargo, N. D., Sept. 8.—Clara Suecia, sixteen years old, a domestic, committed suicide here. She was out with Walter McDermott to a party Saturday night. She returned to her place of employment about midnight, and remained on the piazza till 2 o'clock. About 4 o'clock the girl was very sick, and later admitted taking almost half a pound of paris green.

AMERICAN MINING CONGRESS.

Secretary Shaw Arrives for the Opening at Deadwood.

Deadwood, S. D., Sept. 8.—Secretary Shaw during the day showed Black Hills people that he is strenuous. The secretary reached Deadwood about noon and went to the home of Congressman E. W. Martin, whose guest he will be while here. Seen after dinner, accompanied by the young son of Congressman Martin, the secretary climbed to the top of White Rocks, overlooking the town of Deadwood from the south side and which have an elevation just one mile above the sea level, the apex being 750 feet above the street level. On the way he passed through Mount Moriah cemetery, where Wild Bill, the famous Custer scout, and "Calamity" Jane lie buried side by side.

Returning from the climb, Secretary Shaw was taken to Franklin hotel, where he shook hands with a number of prominent Deadwood men and others who are here for the American mining congress. The secretary attended the reception given to the mining delegates at the Franklin Hotel at 8 o'clock, which was upon the most simple and informal plan.

WOMEN'S CLUBS A CURSE.

Chicago Preacher Sees Only Evil in Such Organizations.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—Women's clubs are the greatest bane of modern civilization. They not only demoralize those women who affiliate themselves but they endanger the home, the church, and the state.

This is the declaration made by the Rev. William B. Leach of the Wicker Park M. E. church. From the pulpit he denounced those women who, he said, aped men in their ways of life, and deserted the family altar to worship at the shrine of Mammon, as represented by the club.

Gambling and carousing, according to the clergyman, are features of the women's organizations of Chicago. He said that the vices common to the organizations of men are duplicated in the social societies maintained by women.

ROOSEVELT REVIEWS PARADE.

Labor Unions and Mail Carriers March at Syracuse.

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 8.—An unprecedented display of flags and patriotic decoration and the unbounded enthusiasm of a vast throng greeted President Roosevelt when he came to open the state fair, to review the labor parade and the parade of the National Association of Letter Carriers. There was never before such a demonstration by organized labor in this city. Fully 5,000 men and women were in line.

After the line had passed the party was driven to the train and departed for the state fair, where the president made an address.

The president returned home in the evening.

VIEW OF A SOUTHERNER.

Gives Duluth People His Opinion of the Colored Race.

Duluth, Sept. 8.—"If the negroes were left to work out their own destiny and did not come in contact with white people the black race would revert to cannibalism within a few generations."

This was the declaration of Congressman Jose E. Ransdell of Louisiana, who is now in Duluth.

"As for the lynching of negroes in the South the better classes there do not believe in burning them at the stake, but they do think that for certain crimes summary justice should be dealt out to them in order to save women from the indignity of having to appear at a public trial and be cross-questioned. That is impossible."

LOW MAY WITHDRAW.

Justice Jerome Mentioned for Mayor of New York.

New York, Sept. 8.—Some of those who are still hoping for a spirited and successful campaign against Tammany this fall think that the way is clearing for the nomination of William Travers Jerome. If they are not deceived about the intentions of Mayor Low the situation will develop on Thursday by the withdrawal of the mayor.

Of the identity of the fusion candidate in such an event no well informed man in Tammany or in the fusion movement has any doubt. It would be Jerome, and Jerome would accept both as a duty and out of his instinctive love of a lively fight.

TO END DOMESTIC TROUBLES.

Young Man Tries to Kill His Wife and Suicides.

Washington, Pa., Sept. 8.—Anxious to end domestic troubles which had caused separation, Charles Brice, twenty-four years old, attempted to kill his wife and to take his own life. Mrs. Brice escaped injury, but her husband is dying with a bullet wound under the heart.

MOODY MAY RESIGN.

Secretary of the Navy Likely to Leave the Cabinet.

Washington, Sept. 8.—There was a renewal during the day in official circles here of the declaration that Secretary Moody will soon tender his resignation and resume the practice of law.

There is an impression here that Secretary Moody is displeased at the action of the president in granting a three years' leave of absence to Lieutenant Peary to make another dash for the north pole after the secretary had refused his request. The president went over Moody's head.

MANY LIVES ARE LOST

HURRICANE TOTALLY DESTROYS SAN MIGUEL, THE OLDEST TOWN IN MEXICO.

NOT A SINGLE BUILDING LEFT

VESSEL PASSING THE ILL FATED CITY REPORTS SEEING NO LIVING PERSON.

New Orleans, Sept. 8.—Steamship advices of the destruction by a hurricane of San Miguel, a town on the east coast of Yucatan, were received during the day. Not a building was left standing. The steamer Breakwater, which passed San Miguel on her way from New Orleans to Belize, found the place in ruins, not a living being in sight.

San Miguel was the oldest town in Mexico. It was the place where Cortez landed when he discovered Mexico, and there he established his headquarters. The hurricane caused immense damage along the Mexican coast and many lives are reported lost.

TRAIN PASSES OVER THEM.

Two Workmen Killed and One Fatally Hurt.

Altoona, Pa., Sept. 8.—Two men were killed and one fatally wounded by the wrecking of a train of small dump cars on the New Portage railroad several miles west of Duncansville.

The dead are: Frank Sons, an Austrian, aged twenty, and an unidentified Slav. The injured man is Luciano Nepunecal, an Italian.

The men were employed on railroad construction and were riding to work on the little cars, when the engine picked a switch. It was followed by one car, the others taking another track. Terrified, the men sprang out of the car attached to the engine and fell on the track in front of the other section. The wheels passed over them.

FORTY PERSONS INJURED.

Pier at Bayonne, N. J., Collapses With Crowd of Negroes.

New York, Sept. 8.—Three hundred negro men, women and children, dressed in their Sunday best and singing gospel hymns, were precipitated into three feet of water and mud at low tide in Newark bay at Bayonne, N. J. The pier on which they were standing collapsed just as the Rev. John T. Thornton was about to baptize a member of his flock.

Forty persons were injured, the majority by the hysterical efforts of their companions to escape from what for the moment they thought was death by drowning.

WHOLE BLOCK IN FLAMES.

Disastrous Conflagration Occurs at Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, Sept. 8.—At 2 o'clock a. m. three alarms were turned in for a fire that is consuming the block bounded by Liberty avenue and Spring, Sixteenth and Seventeenth streets. In this territory are the Pittsburg Switch and Signal plant, the Comstock Brass Manufacturing company, the Theumler Manufacturing company, James Fand's stables, with ninety horses in them, five dwellings and a number of storage houses. The fire started in Fand's stable. The loss is at least $200,000.

THREE INCHES OF RAIN.

Crop Conditions Critical in North Dakota.

Fargo, N. D., Sept. 8.—Weather observer states that the rainfall of the last two days aggregates a few fractions under three inches. Old settlers say they don't ever remember so big a fall in the same period or that crop conditions from that cause were ever so critical. It is feared that though grain may dry out the land will be so wet that it will be a long time before threshing rigs will be able to be hauled about the fields and roads.

WHILE THAWING DYNAMITE.

Three Men Instantly Killed and Several Injured.

Everett, Wash., Sept. 8.—Three men were instantly killed and two other men and a boy were injured by an explosion of dynamite in the Bride mine in the Monte Cristo region. The killed are: Frank Kauffman, Joe Valentine and Morris Vanullti.

The men were thawing dynamite when the explosion occurred.

MARINE DISASTER FEARED.

Vessel With Over a Hundred Passengers Missing.

Sandusky, O., Sept. 8.—The steamer Louise with 125 passengers aboard, which left Sandusky at 6 o'clock a. m. for Leamington, Can., has not yet landed there, and it is thought the boat is lost. The trip usually requires only a few hours.

Boy Fatally Injured.

Vincennes, Ind., Sept. 8.—A son of Edgar Snyder was probably fatally injured and about fifteen persons were painfully bruised by the collapse of a building at the fair grounds, where a Labor day celebration was holding.

Pittsburg, Sept. 8.—At 2 o'clock a. m. three alarms were turned in for a fire that is consuming the block bounded by Liberty avenue and Spring, Sixteenth and Seventeenth streets. In this territory are the Pittsburg Switch and Signal plant, the Comstock Brass Manufacturing company, the Theumber Manufacturing company, James Fand's stables, with ninety horses in them, five dwellings and a number of storage houses. The fire started in Fand's stable. The loss is at least $200,000.

THREE INCHES OF RAIN.

Crop Conditions Critical in North Dakota.

Fargo, N. D., Sept. 8.—Weather observer states that the rainfall of the last two days aggregates a few fractions under three inches. Old settlers say they don't ever remember so big a fall in the same period or that crop conditions from that cause were ever so critical. It is feared that though grain may dry out the land will be so wet that it will be a long time before threshing rigs will be able to be hauled about the fields and roads.

WHILE THAWING DYNAMITE.

Three Men Instantly Killed and Several Injured.

Everett, Wash., Sept. 8.—Three men were instantly killed and two other men and a boy were injured by an explosion of dynamite in the Bride mine in the Monte Cristo region. The killed are: Frank Kausan, Joe Valentine and Morris Vanull.

The men were thawing dynamite when the explosion occurred.

MARINE DISASTER FEARED.

Vessel With Over a Hundred Passengers Missing.

Sandusky, O., Sept. 8.—The steamer Louise with 125 passengers aboard, which left Sandusky at 6 o'clock a. m. for Leamington, Can., has not yet landed there, and it is thought the boat is lost. The trip usually requires only a few hours.

Boy Fatally Injured.

Vincennes, Ind., Sept. 8.—A son of Edgar Snyder was probably fatally injured and about fifteen persons were painfully bruised by the collapse of a building at the fair grounds, where a Labor day celebration was holding.

LABOR DAY WAS AN EVENTFUL ONE

Grand Industrial Parade in the Morning Was One of the Best in Years

THE PRIZES ARE AWARDED

And the Carbuilders Capture the One Offered for the Best Mechanical Float

Labor Day for 1903 in the city of Brainerd has passed into history as one of the most eventful in the history of the city, and the old heads, those who have watched the progress of these annual festivals under the auspices of the labor organizations of the city, state that this celebration eclipsed all others in point of excellence of turnouts and floats, and also in point of the number of men who were out in line. It is estimated that there were fully twelve hundred laboring men in line in the big industrial parade and it made a grand pageant.

The city was all astir from the early hours of morning, and barring the one sad incident of the death of Senator A. F. Ferris, who had always been interested in these celebrations, the day passed off without a mishap and it was certainly a very auspicious one for the trades and labor organizations of the city.

THE INDUSTRIAL PARADE.

The first event of the day of interest was the big industrial parade which occurred at 10 o'clock in the morning. The different bodies formed in a line on Kindred street in East Brainerd, marched through the different thoroughfares of the city and disbanded at the corner of Front and Sixth streets where the speaking occurred.

The parade is thought to have been one of the most auspicious in the history of the city, and it certainly was in many respects. All the floats showed hard and consistent work and demonstrated in a greater degree than anything else the type of work being done in the shops of the city. Naturally the different departments of the Northern Pacific shops contribute largely to the success of the big Labor Day celebrations and usually it is some body of men from the shops that captures the prizes.

Chief Marshal Conrad Isle headed the parade and he made an imposing commanding officer. He was followed by the Marine band which discoursed good music throughout the day. Then followed the carriages with the different officers of the Trades and Labor assembly, the speakers and the guests of honor. In the first carriage rode President William Herron, of the Trades and Labor assembly, Mayor A. J. Halsted and Rev. Richard Brown, of the First Congregational church. In the next carriage Supt. Wheatley, of the N. P. shops, A. E. Mitchell, superintendent of motive power of the Northern Pacific, and the general foremen of the shops in this city, Messrs. Anderson and Fullerton. Then followed a carriage with Mrs. Stewart and James Patrick Boyle, two other speakers of the day. Carriages then followed with members of the city council. Immediately following the carriages came the officers of the Trades and Labor assembly.

DIFFERENT UNIONS IN LINE.

Then followed the long line of members of the various unions in the city. The first in line were the members of the bartenders' union. They were neatly dressed in white coats and white caps and made a very imposing sight.

The next in line was the car builders union with the very best float in the parade. For ingenuity this float equalled anything that has ever been seen in this line. On a flat platform built on a wagon was heaped a lot of earth which had been artistically sodded representing a large hill. Small twigs were placed here and there representing trees. A miniature railroad track encircled this mound and on it were small cars which were run by an electric motor placed under the wagon. At one side of the mound there was a depot representing Seattle's N. P. station and on the other side was St. Paul's depot, the distance between the two places being the extent of the Northern Pacific lines. The members of the union were out in gala attire.

Then followed a carriage with Messrs. Parker and Topping in the rear seat and all the men nearly of the Iron Moulders union following them. They made a very pleasing appearance in the parade, and had a good float.

The steam fitters turned out in large numbers and made an attractive appearance, receiving many compliments along the line.

The painters union made a good showing. Roy Guthrie, riding on a prancing steed, headed the line and they all looked very swell in their white duck suits.

The barber's union was in line with a good representation and the tonsorial artists looked too sweet for anything, with their white coats and neat caps.

The tinsmiths had an unique turnout. Each member of the union carried a parasol made of tin with the emblem of their order at the top. They were also all decked out in uniform regalia.

The machinists had another swell float which elicited much praise along the line. A large number of locomotive bells had been hung on the float and little girls seated on stools in the center of the wagon, dressed in white, pulled the white ribbons that made the bells ring. The machinists were all dressed in black shirts, with white duck pants and becoming caps.

One of the very swiftest floats in the parade was that of the clerk's union. The young lady members of the union were placed on the wagon dressed in white gowns trimmed with red. The gentlemen, a very good turnout, were dressed in white with red collars.

The carpenters were in line with a very unique float. There was also a good turnout of the members of the union.

The boiler makers had one of the best turnouts in point of number and they looked swell too in their very appropriate uniforms.

The helpers in their jean suits had the biggest turnout of the day. It was a reminder of former events to see these boys in line.

The freight handlers, the railway clerks and the teamsters unions each had good turnouts.

The Gold Dust Flour people had quite a display in the parade.

A pleasant feature of the parade was at the Cleary, McGinnis & Hemstead wholesale house. A little surprise was in store for those in line when they rounded this corner. The members of the firm were outside with cigars and loaded down the boys with good smokers, the "LaLinda," and the "City of Brainerd" cigars. They gave away 4000.

SOME GOOD ADDRESSES.

After the parade was over the crowd gathered about the grand stand and listened to some excellent addresses. The first to address the people was J. Patrick Boyle. He gave a clean-cut, consistent and logical presentation of the labor question and the effort was one of the best ever heard from him.

Mr. Boyle was followed by Rev. Richard Brown, of the First Congregational Church. He gave a powerful and intellectual address and was greeted with applause.

Miss Stewart then gave a strong and very interesting address on the labor question and she was well received. It is rather unfortunate that space would not permit today the reproduction of these most excellent addresses.

AWARDING OF PRIZES.

The parade then passed in view of the grand stand at the corner of Front and sixth and the following acted as judges and made the awards: Supt. A. E. Wheatley, D. K. Fullerton, Judge J. T. Sanborn, Dr. W. Hemstead and A. L. Mattes.

The following prizes were awarded: Best mechanical float—First, $40, car builders; second, $20, Mill workers. Best appearing float—First, $20, Moulders; second, $10, Machinists. Largest body of men—Helpers union, $15.

There was an alleged ball game at Athletic Park yesterday afternoon between Aitkin and Brainerd, but it was so rank that the fans are tickled to death that the curtain has been drawn on Aitkin's last appearance with the locals for the season of 1903. The Aitkin team played like a lot of farmers as the score, 15 to 5, would indicate.

Following is the score by innings:

The next in line was the car builders union with the very best float in the parade. For ingenuity this float equalled anything that has ever been seen in this line. On a flat platform built on a wagon was heaped a lot of earth which had been artistically sodded representing a large hill. Small twigs were placed here and there representing trees. A miniature railroad track encircled this mound and on it were small cars which were run by an electric motor placed under the wagon. At one side of the mound there was a depot representing Seattle's N. P. station and on the other side was St. Paul's depot, the distance between the two places being the extent of the Northern Pacific lines. The members of the union were out in gala attire.

Then followed a carriage with Messrs. Parker and Topping in the rear seat and all the men nearly of the Iron Moulders union following them. They made a very pleasing appearance in the parade, and had a good float.

The steam fitters turned out in large numbers and made an attractive appearance, receiving many compliments along the line.

The painters union made a good showing. Roy Guthrie, riding on a prancing steed, headed the line and they all looked very swell in their white duck suits.

The barber's union was in line with a good representation and the tonsorial artists looked too sweet for anything, with their white coats and neat caps.

The tinsmiths had an unique turnout. Each member of the union carried a parasol made of tin with the emblem of their order at the top. They were also all decked out in uniform regalia.

The machinists had another swell float which elicited much praise along the line. A large number of locomotive bells had been hung on the float and little girls seated on stools in the center of the wagon, dressed in white, pulled the white ribbons that made the bells ring. The machinists were all dressed in black shirts, with white duck pants and becoming caps.

One of the very swellest floats in the parade was that of the clerk's union. The young lady members of the union were placed on the wagon dressed in white gowns trimmed with red. The gentlemen, a very good turnout, were dressed in white with red collars.

The carpenters were in line with a very unique float. There was also a good turnout of the members of the union.

The boiler makers had one of the best turnouts in point of number and they looked swell too in their very appropriate uniforms.

The helpers in their jean suits had the biggest turnout of the day. It was a reminder of former events to see these boys in line.

The freight handlers, the railway clerks and the teamsters unions each had good turnouts.

The Gold Dust Flour people had quite a display in the parade.

A pleasant feature of the parade was at the Cleary, McGinnis & Hemstead wholesale house. A little surprise was in store for those in line when they rounded this corner. The members of the firm were outside with cigars and loaded down the boys with good smokers, the "LaLinda," and the "City of Brainerd" cigars. They gave away 4000.

SOME GOOD ADDRESSES.

After the parade was over the crowd gathered about the grand stand and listened to some excellent addresses. The first to address the people was J. Patrick Boyle. He gave a clean-cut, consistent and logical presentation of the labor question and the effort was one of the best ever heard from him.

Mr. Boyle was followed by Rev. Richard Brown, of the First Congregational Church. He gave a powerful and intellectual address and was greeted with applause.

Miss Stewart then gave a strong and very interesting address on the labor question and she was well received. It is rather unfortunate that space would not permit today the reproduction of these most excellent addresses.

AWARDING OF PRIZES.

The parade then passed in view of the grand stand at the corner of Front and sixth and the following acted as judges and made the awards: Supt. A. E. Wheatley, D. K. Fullerton, Judge J. T. Sanborn, Dr. W. Hemstead and A. L. Mattes.

The following prizes were awarded: Best mechanical float—First, $40, car builders; second, $20, Mill workers.

There was an alleged ball game at Athletic Park yesterday afternoon between Aitkin and Brainerd, but it was so rank that the fans are tickled to death that the curtain has been drawn on Aitkin's last appearance with the locals for the season of 1903. The Aitkin team played like a lot of farmers as the score, 15 to 5, would indicate. Following is the score by innings:

DEATH REMOVES HON. A. F. FERRIS

And The City and Northern Part of
the State is Plunged Into Profoundest Gloom

USEFUL PUBLIC CAREER ENDED

PHYSICIANS' STATEMENT.

The actual cause of death was malignant form of appendicitis with a stoppage of the bowels due to old adhesive bands, caused by former attacks. There was also a diseased condition of the kidneys and liver. The operation revealed the fact that there was probably a perforation of the appendix from the very first and that an operation even during the first twelve hours of his illness would not, in all probability, have saved his life.

DR. C. J. RINGNELL,
DR. A. F. GROVES.

Hon. Allen F. Ferris died yesterday morning at a quarter past eight o'clock, and Brainerd was thrown into the profoundest gloom. So sudden was the demise of Brainerd's most prominent citizen that the shock came as a thunderbolt from the heavens, and the entire city and in fact Crow Wing county, plunged into deepest mourning over the irreparable loss.

On the dawn of a day when the city was about to clothe itself in its most gala attire, Senator Ferris' life ebbed away and he lived not to even hear a whisper of the attendant success of a great celebration made so by the exertion put forth by himself, for he has always been sponsor of the events attending the commemoration of Labor Day. And this year as in the past he played an important part in securing the funds which were used for the pleasure of others during the day and which resulted in the ultimate success of this one great event of the year in Brainerd. He had run his course, faithful to the last and untiring in his devotion to the community's best welfare.

It seemed indeed a cruel interruption of the day's festivities, when the trades and labor organizations had planned one of the biggest celebrations in their history, but the prompt response as the chord of human sympathy was touched, denoting in no small degree the esteem in which deceased was held in by all, and the supplanting of the emblems of mourning where glistening banners were wont to be unfurled, spoke louder than words, and the honor thus bestowed is without parallel in Brainerd.

The decorations which were artistically hung from prominent places in the city were, as soon as the news of the death of Senator Ferris had been learned, immediately redecorated with draperies emblematic of sorrow and the flags that were early unfurled to the wind were reduced to half mast in honor of the dead. To the serious thinking citizen the grand festival of the triumphs of labor was replaced by general depression, and the big industrial parade, grand in its magnitude and splendor, which in a sense was typical of the general resources of the city along manufacturing and mercantile lines, seemed more like a funeral cortege on this day and the glistening, sparkling features faded into insignificance beside the little tufts of black, symbolic of sorrow and mourning.

WAS SICK BUT SHORT TIME.

Death came to claim Brainerd's most influential and enterprising citizen stealthily in the still night, and the soul of A. F. Ferris was carried away leaving a stillness like the calm after a storm and for a time those closest and dearest could find some comfort in the realization of the actual that had happened. Last Thursday morning Mr. Ferris was feeling very well and was down to his office at the First National bank, spending most of the morning there and about the city attending to his duties. He first complained on Thursday afternoon when he was taken with slight pains in the region of the stomach. He went to his home and in the evening Dr. A. F. Groves, the family physician, was called.

Dr. Groves upon examination soon learned that the trouble was in the region of the appendix and that the senator was suffering from appendicitis, and informed his patient that it would be well for him to have an operation, but Mr. Ferris stated that he thought the trouble would pass away soon and he would be all right again, and even when cautioned again regarding the matter, he did not think that his case was at all serious. On Friday morning Senator Ferris consented to have Dr. Groves wire to Minneapolis for a specialist, and the doctor did wire immediately for Dr. C. J. Ringnell, one of the leading surgeons of that city. The word did not get to Dr. Ringnell in time so that he could catch the morning train out and get here by noon, so he took the "flyer" coming as far as Little Falls, and from there to Brainerd on a special light engine. A hurried examination was made of Mr. Ferris' condition and it is understood that Dr. Ringnell decided that an operation should be performed, but that the patient's condition was in prime of life. The news of the actual condition of Senator Ferris struck those present with a sense of keenest sorrow, and great sympathy was expressed for the wife and aged mother, who were almost completely overcome. It was a sad blow and the sight of Mrs. B. A. Ferris, the mother, taking her departure from the death chamber for the last time was a pitiful one.

At the time of the death yesterday morning there were none of the relatives at the bedside except a brother-in-law, H. J. Spencer. Up to within about ten minutes of his death Mr. Ferris was quite rational and talked somewhat. He realized that the end was near and repeated to Mr. Spencer, "It is too bad, it is too bad." He then began to call for his wife and almost the last words uttered by the late senator were regarding his wife. The relatives of the deceased had been sent for when it was seen that the end was near at hand, but they did not arrive in time. Mrs. Ferris, his wife, was the first to arrive but death occurred some five minutes before. She was completely overcome and had to be almost carried from the hospital.

WAS IN PRIME OF LIFE.

Allen F. Ferris was born at Perryburg, Cattaraugus county, N. Y., on July 27, 1865, so that he had just passed his thirty-eighth birthday when he died. He was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ferris, who moved to Brainerd in 1872, when Senator Ferris was but seven years of age. The elder Ferris was agent for the United States Express company when he first came to Brainerd and was with the company until January 1880, when the business went into the hands of the Northern Pacific Express company, after which he started a bank known as the Bank of Brainerd which shortly afterward became a national bank, with the elder Mr. Ferris as president. Senator Ferris

The Late ALLEN F. FERRIS.

received a common school education, part in the east and part in Brainerd afterwards taking a course at Carleton college, Northfield. Mr. Ferris was appointed teller of the First National bank in this city in the year 1885, when he was then but twenty years of age, and his advancement in his profession after that was very rapid. The following year, 1886, he was elected cashier of the First National and in 1892 was elected president, then a young man only twenty-seven years of age.

THE FIRST REAL ALARM.

The first real alarm came about 6 o'clock Sunday evening when Senator Ferris grew suddenly worse. He began to vomit and suffered intense pains throughout the bowels and stomach, and it was then decided that there was no other alternative than to perform an operation, and help was summoned and Mr. Ferris hurriedly removed from his residence on Seventh street north to St. Joseph's hospital, where the operation was performed, the patient being in the operating room until nearly 10 o'clock. Relatives of the suffering man were summoned and were at hand, and the gravest doubt was felt, some believing that he would never survive the ordeal in the operating room. After he was removed to the Elks' room from the operating room Dr. Ringnell gave out the startling information that Senator Ferris was in a very critical condition and that there was not one chance in one thousand for his recovery. He stated that Mr. Ferris had appendicitis in its worst form. The appendix had been ruptured and there was general peritonitis. After he had reached his bed in the hospital Mr. Ferris inquired of the doctor what they had found and he was told the exact condition he was in. He bravely announced that he would not give up and would feel them all, and it is understood that this frame of mind existed almost up to the last. The attending physicians thought that he would not survive until morning, but he did not expire until 8:15 o'clock a. m.

WAS A TERRIBLE SHOCK.

At the time of the operation there were a number of the closest friends of the late senator, together with his wife and aged mother and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Spencer, and Mr. and Mrs. Will Spencer, present at the hospital. The news of the actual condition of Senator Ferris struck those present with a sense of keenest sorrow, and great sympathy was expressed for the wife and aged mother, who were almost completely overcome. It was a sad blow and the sight of Mrs. B. A. Ferris, the mother, taking her departure from the death chamber for the last time was a pitiful one.

At the time of the death yesterday morning there were none of the relatives at the bedside except a brother-in-law, H. J. Spencer. Up to within about ten minutes of his death Mr. Ferris was quite rational and talked somewhat. He realized that the end was near and repeated to Mr. Spencer, "It is too bad, it is too bad." He then began to call for his wife and almost the last words uttered by the late senator were regarding his wife. The relatives of the deceased had been sent for when it was seen that the end was near at hand, but they did not arrive in time. Mrs. Ferris, his wife, was the first to arrive but death occurred some five minutes before. She was completely overcome and had to be almost carried from the hospital.

SENATOR'S PUBLIC CAREER.

While Mr. Ferris was always a staunch Republican it was not until the year 1891 that he held public office. In that year he was appointed by Gov. Merriam as a member of the state game and fish commission, and later, when the commission was organized as a board, he became its secretary. He was elected a member of the legislature from this district and after serving three terms in the lower branch of that body, he was elected last fall to the general election to the upper house, and was at the time of his death state senator. He was a member of the state central committee in 1900 and also went as a delegate that year to the national convention at Philadelphia at which time President McKinley was nominated.

Besides being interested in the First National bank in this city and being its president, Mr. Ferris was also one of the directors and president of the First National bank at Cass Lake. He was also the president of the Minnesota Park Region Land company and was interested in various other enterprises. Only this spring he became heavily interested with St. Paul and eastern capitalists in the formation of a million dollar lumber company which is about to operate in the great Canadian northwest.

While a comparatively young man, being only thirty-eight years of age, Mr. Ferris had achieved an enviable distinction both in business and political circles throughout the state, and his ability and integrity were well recognized. He secured recognition for his constituents where other men have failed and his presence has always been felt in the administration of public affairs in the state legislature. He was one of the most active members last winter in the upper branch and, although his first term in this branch, received more recognition and secured better legislation for his district than most of the older heads for theirs. All important legislation as affecting Brainerd was secured through his influence and he has ever been on the alert to serve his people with a gallantry that had commanded the respect of all Republicans and the admiration of Democrats in this district.

In the senate he at once assumed leadership. He was the father of the bill establishing a state sanitarium for consumptives. He was a member of the most important committees in the senate, being on railroads, logs and lumber, mines and minerals, game and game laws, public lands and banks and banking. He was one of the Babcock leaders in the late speakership contest. He had the reputation of getting whatever he went after and his work was always a stimulus to others who figured little obstacles as unsurmountable. His loss will be felt not only in Brainerd but throughout the county and in fact Northern Minnesota, for he was at the zenith of his career and had he lived would have been able to devote at least twenty years more of his life for the public good.

A GREAT LOSS TO BRAINERD.

The loss to the city of Brainerd in the death of Senator Ferris cannot well be estimated for in this city he was a sort of father to all. A truer friend never lived that he, and there are hundreds in Brainerd who have from time to time felt the warmth of his generosity, and they can attest to his goodness. No public enterprise, no matter how great or small, nothing that could be suggested for the public's good, politically, educationally or religiously, no cry of need, no worthy man in distress, would ever be overlooked by Senator Ferris. He was always the first man to be sought out when citizens generally were asked to subscribe means for some public good and there is seldom an instance where it is chronicled that he turned the marble heart to such. The expression on all hands in this city is that no greater loss, except some general calamity, could come to Brainerd at this present time. His power in the city and his influence throughout the northern part of the state made him a pillar among his own people and his removal at this time is like the removal of a great foundation from beneath a massive structure.

BELONGED TO MANY ORDERS.

Senator Ferris was a member of several of the different secret societies in the city. He was a member of the following Masonic bodies: Aurora lodge, No. 100; Brainerd Chapter, No. 42; Ascalon Commandry, No. 16 and Zurah Temple, Order of Shriners. He was also a member of Brainerd Lodge, B. P. O. E., No. 615; Camp No. 2357, M. W. A., Brainerd Aerie, No. 257, F. O. E.; White Cross Lodge, No. 39, K. of P.; and Red Cloud Tribe, No. 13, I. O. R. M. He was also a member of Hook and Ladder Co. No. 1, having been affiliated with that organization since its start. While never holding office in any of these bodies he was always a conscientious and faithful worker in the interest of the orders and his advice was always sought in matters pertaining to the welfare of the different bodies. He had already been elected and was about to take the Scottish Rite degree. A rather queer coincidence is the fact that the late Frank Johnson had also advanced in Masonry to the extent that Senator Ferris had, and he too was taken suddenly away after being elected and just before taking the Scottish Rite work in the Twin cities. Nearly all the secret orders to which the late senator belonged are taking steps to take some part in the last sad obsequies, which will occur on Thursday afternoon.

TELEGRAMS OF REGRET RECEIVED.

The death of Senator Ferris brought many telegrams of sympathy and regret from different parts of the state and the northwest. Early yesterday morning as soon as the death was known in St. Paul, telegrams were sent to the family of the deceased and to some of Mr. Ferris' closest friends.

Mrs. A. F. Ferris is heartstricken over the sudden turn of affairs and the aged mother of the deceased, Mrs. B. A. Ferris, is completely overcome with grief. The deceased left besides his wife and mother, one son, Frank Ferris, aged 14 years and a sister, Mrs. H. J. Spencer, besides many relatives in the east of more distant relation. The mourning members of the family in this city have the sympathy of the entire community.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR FUNERAL.

The funeral services will be held on Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, from the First Congregational church, Rev. Richard Brown officiating. It is expected that there will be a large turnout of the members of the different bodies to which deceased was a member and there will also be present a large number of friends of the late senator from outside cities. All business places and public offices in the city will be closed from 1:00 p. m. to 5:00 p. m., an honor which is seldom bestowed by a city on one of her dead. Mayor A. J. Halsted has issued a proclamation to this effect and it will doubtless be generally responded to.

Rev. Richard Brown will officiate and the following have been selected as pall

The shops will be closed on Thursday afternoon and a meeting of all the unions of the city was held last night and it was decided that the Trades and Labor assembly members would turn out in a body.

To the Citizens of Brainerd.

By the sudden and untimely death of Hon. A. F. Ferris, our city has lost a faithful public servant and a public-spirited citizen. For years he has been prominent in public affairs, and a leading and influential business man. During his active business career he has always been foremost in the work of building up and improving our city, and has ever had the best interests of the city at heart. His death is sincerely mourned as a public loss.

It is fitting and proper, therefore, that all proper respect should be shown by our citizens for the deceased, and I would therefore request that all public offices be closed, and that business of all kinds be suspended on the afternoon of Thursday, Sept. 10, the day of the funeral, between the hours of 1 and 5 o'clock, and that emblems of mourning be displayed upon all places of business, as a tribute of respect.

was in prime of life.

At the time of the death yesterday morning there were none of the relatives at the bedside except a brother-in-law, H. J. Spencer. Up to within about ten minutes of his death Mr. Ferris was quite rational and talked somewhat. He realized that the end was near and repeated to Mr. Spencer, "It is too bad, it is too bad." He then began to call for his wife and almost the last words uttered by the late senator were regarding his wife. The relatives of the deceased had been sent for when it was seen that the end was near at hand, but they did not arrive in time. Mrs. Ferris, his wife, was the first to arrive but death occurred some five minutes before. She was completely overcome and had to be almost carried from the hospital.

WAS IN PRIME OF LIFE.

Allen F. Ferris was born at Perrybury, Cattaraugus county, N. Y., on July 27, 1865, so that he had just passed his thirty-eighth birthday when he died. He was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ferris, who moved to Brainerd in 1872, when Senator Ferris was but seven years of age. The elder Ferris was agent for the United States Express company when he first came to Brainerd and was with the company until January 1880, when the business went into the hands of the Northern Pacific Express company, after which he started a bank known as the Bank of Brainerd which shortly afterward became a national bank, with the elder Mr. Ferris as president. at that time would not permit of its being done. Friday night passed with very little change, and very little was thought of the matter, no one thinking for a moment, except perhaps the attending physicians, that there was anything serious the matter with the senator. Saturday morning he was about the same and he was quite comfortable through Saturday night. Sunday morning he seemed somewhat relieved and continued so throughout the day with very little change one way or the other.

THE FIRST REAL ALARM.

The first real alarm came about 6 o'clock Sunday evening when Senator Ferris grew suddenly worse. He began to vomit and suffered intense pains throughout the bowels and stomach, and it was then decided that there was no other alternative than to perform an operation, and help was summoned and Mr. Ferris hurriedly removed from his residence on Seventh street north to St. Joseph's hospital, where the operation was performed, the patient being in the operating room until nearly 10 o'clock. Relatives of the suffering man were summoned and were at hand, and the gravest doubt was felt, some believing that he would never survive the ordeal in the operating room. After he was removed to the Elks' room from the operating room Dr. Ringnell gave out the startling information that Senator Ferris was in a very critical condition and that there was not one chance in one thousand for his recovery. He stated that Mr. Ferris had appendicitis in its worst form. The appendix had been ruptured and there was general peritonitis. After he had reached his bed in the hospital Mr. Ferris inquired of the doctor what they had found and he was told the exact condition he was in. He bravely announced that he would not give up and would fool them all, and it is understood that his frame of mind existed almost up to the last. The attending physicians thought that he would not survive until morning, but he did not expire until 8:15 o'clock a. m.

WAS A TERRIBLE SHOCK.

At the time of the operation there were a number of the closest friends of the late senator, together with his wife and aged mother and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Spencer, and Mr. and Mrs. Will Spen-

received a common school education, part in the east and part in Brainerd afterwards taking a course at Carleton college, Northfield.

Mr. Ferris was appointed teller of the First National bank in this city in the year 1885, when he was then but twenty years of age, and his advancement in his profession after that was very rapid. The following year, 1886, he was elected cashier of the First National and in 1892 was elected president, then a young man only twenty-seven years of age.

SENATOR'S PUBLIC CAREER.

While Mr. Ferris was always a staunch Republican it was not until the year 1891 that he held public office. In that year he was appointed by Gov. Merriam as a member of the state game and fish commission, and later, when the commission was organized as a board, he became its secretary. He was elected a member of the legislature from this district and after serving three terms in the lower branch of that body, he was elected last fall at the general election to the upper house, and was at the time of his death state senator. He was a member of the state central committee in 1900 and also went as a delegate that year to the national convention at Philadelphia at which time President McKinley was nominated.

Besides being interested in the First National bank in this city and being its president, Mr. Ferris was also one of the directors and president of the First National bank at Cass Lake. He was also the president of the Minnesota Park Region Land company and was interested in various other enterprises. Only this spring he became heavily interested with St. Paul and eastern capitalists in the formation of a million dollar lumber company which is about to operate in the great Canadian northwest.

While a comparatively young man, being only thirty-eight years of age, Mr. Ferris had achieved an enviable distinction both in business and political circles throughout the state, and his ability and integrity were well recognized. He secured recognition for his constituents where other men have failed and his presence has always been felt in the administration of public affairs in the state legislature. He was one of the most active members last winter in the upper branch and, although his first term in this branch, received more recognition and secured better legislation for his district than most of the older heads for theirs. All important legislation as affecting Brainerd was secured through his influence and he has ever been on the alert to serve his people with a gallantry that had commanded the respect of all Republicans and the admiration of Democrats in this district.

In the senate he at once assumed leadership. He was the father of the bill establishing a state sanitarium for consumptives. He was a member of the most important committees in the senate, being on railroads, logs and lumber, mines and minerals, game and game laws, public lands and banks and banking. He was one of the Babcock leaders in the late speakership contest. He had the reputation of getting what ever he went after and his work was always a stimulus to others who figured little obstacles as unsurmountable. His loss will be felt not only in Brainerd but throughout the county and in fact Northern Minnesota, for he was at the zenith of his career and had he lived would have been able to devote at least twenty years more of his life for the public good.

A GREAT LOSS TO BRAINERD.

The loss to the city of Brainerd in the death of Senator Ferris cannot well be estimated for in this city he was a sort of father to all. A truer friend never lived that he, and there are hundreds in Brainerd who have from time to time felt the warmth of his generosity, and they can attest to his goodness. No public enterprise, no matter how great or small, nothing that could be suggested for the public's good, politically, educationally or religiously, no cry of need, no worthy man in distress, would ever be overlooked by Senator Ferris. He was always the first man to be sought out when citizens generally were asked to subscribe means for some public good and there is seldom an instance where it is chronicled that he turned the marble heart to such. The expression on all hands in this city is that no greater loss, except some general calamity, could come to Brainerd at this present time. His power in the city and his influence throughout the northern part of the state made him a pillar among his own people and his removal at this time is like the removal of a great foundation from beneath a massive structure.

BELONGED TO MANY ORDERS.

Senator Ferris was a member of several of the different secret societies in the city. He was a member of the following Masonic bodies: Aurora lodge, No. 100; Brainerd Chapter, No. 42; Ascalon Commandry, No. 16 and Zarah Temple, Order of Shriners. He was also a member of Brainerd Lodge, B. P. O. E., No. 615; Camp No. 2337, M. W. A., Brainerd Aerie, No. 287, F. O. E.; White Cross Lodge, No. 30, K. of P.; and Red Cloud Tribe, No. 13, I. O. O. F. He was also a member of Hook and Ladder Co. No. 1, having been affiliated with that organization since its start. While never holding office in any of these bodies he was always a conscientious and faithful worker in the interest of the orders and his advice was always sought in matters pertaining to the welfare of the different bodies. He had already been elected and was about to take the Scottish Rite degree. A rather queer coincidence is the fact that the late Frank Johnson had also advanced in Masonry to the extent that Senator Ferris had, and he too was taken suddenly away after being elected and just before taking the Scottish Rite work in the Twincities. Nearly all the secret orders to which the late senator belonged are taking steps to take some part in the last sad obsequies, which will occur on Thursday afternoon.

TELEGRAMS OF REGRET RECEIVED.

The death of Senator Ferris brought many telegrams of sympathy and regret from different parts of the state and the northwest. Early yesterday morning as soon as the death was known in St. Paul, telegrams were sent to the family of the deceased and to some of Mr. Ferris' closest friends.

Mrs. A. F. Ferris is heartstricken over the sudden turn of affairs and the aged mother of the deceased, Mrs. B. A. Ferris, is completely overcome with grief. The deceased left besides his wife and mother, one son, Frank Ferris, aged 14 years and a sister, Mrs. H. J. Spencer, besides many relatives in the east of more distant relation. The mourning members of the family in this city have the sympathy of the entire community.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR FUNERAL.

The funeral services will be held on Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, from the First Congregational church, Rev. Richard Brown officiating. It is expected that there will be a large turnout of the members of the different bodies to which deceased was a member and there will also be present a large number of friends of the late senator from outside cities. All business places and public offices in the city will be closed from 1:00 p. m. to 5:00 p. m., an honor which is seldom bestowed by a city on one of her dead. Mayor A. J. Halsted has issued a proclamation to this effect and it will doubtless be generally responded to.

Rev. Richard Brown will officiate and the following have been selected as pall

The shops will be closed on Thursday afternoon and a meeting of all the unions of the city was held last night and it was decided that the Trades and Labor assembly members would turn out in a body.

To the Citizens of Brainerd.

By the sudden and untimely death of Hon. A. F. Ferris, our city has lost a faithful public servant and a public-spirited citizen. For years he has been prominent in public affairs, and a leading and influential business man. During his active business career he has always been foremost in the work of building up and improving our city, and has ever had the best interests of the city at heart. His death is sincerely mourned as a public loss.

It is fitting and proper, therefore, that all proper respect should be shown by our citizens for the deceased, and I would therefore request that all public offices be closed, and that business of all kinds be suspended on the afternoon of Thursday, Sept. 10, the day of the funeral, between the hours of 1 and 5 o'clock, and that emblems of mourning be displayed upon all places of business, as a tribute of respect.

A. J. HALSTED, Mayor.
Brainerd, Sept. 8, 1903.

Attention Firemen.

All active and retired firemen are requested to meet at the central hose house tomorrow night to make arrangements to attend the funeral of the late A. F. Ferris.

Attention Laboring Men.

All members of the trades and labor unions are requested by the Trades and Labor Assembly to turn out en masse to the funeral of the late A. F. Ferris, on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Notice.

The principal officers of the various lodges and organizations to which the late A. F. Ferris belonged are requested to meet at Masonic hall at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening, Sept. 9th, for the purpose of arranging details and assigning places in funeral procession.

PROCEEDS UNCHECKED

WORK OF EXTERMINATION GOES
STEADILY ON IN ALL DIS-TRICTS OF MACEDONIA.

DANGER OF CONFLAGRATION

POWERS WILL NOT INTERFERE
UNTIL AFTER CZAR AND AUS-TRIAN EMPEROR MEET.

London, Sept. 8.—Special dispatches
from the near East add little fresh
news regarding the situation in the Balkans. All the correspondents at Constantinople emphasize the apparent
danger of war with Bulgaria, while
the Sofia correspondents are equally
insistent as to the prudent and correct attitude of Prince Ferdinand and
his government.

Accounts from both Turkish and insurgent sources of the operations in Macedonia show that the work of ex-
termination is proceeding unchecked,
and, although apparently realizing the
danger of a conflagration, the powers
are making some attempt to interfere.
It is believed that nothing of a serious
nature will be done until after the
meeting of the czar and Emperor
Francis Joseph at Vienna, when it may
be too late.

The insurgents are now said to number 25,000 well armed and efficiently
commanded men. Their leaders seemingly will stop at nothing to secure resources for their equipment.

A dispatch to the Times from Mon-
astir says:

"In Turkish circles war with Bulgaria is thought to be imminent.
Hilmi Pasha, inspector general of Mac-
edonia, himself says he sees no other solution. The final reserves are warned to hold themselves in readiness
and orders have been issued to the
principal towns to supply horses and
money and otherwise to aid the military preparations."

WOULD ONLY MEAN RUIN.

Bulgaria Not Anxious to Engage in War.

London, Sept. 8.—A dispatch to the Times from Varna, Bulgaria, says:
"The ministers are returning to Sofia. No aggressive action will be taken on this side. It is perfectly understood that Bulgaria has not a single friend in Europe and a policy of adventure could only result in ruining the country. Prince Ferdinand's
decision can hardly provoke adverse
comment even in Germany, where
there is an obvious eagerness to precipitate a Turko-Bulgarian war. The prospects that some benefit might ac-
cure to Bulgaria by the Balkan question leading to a conflict between the
great powers has not entered into the
calculations of the Bulgarian government. No vain hopes of territorial aggrandizement are entertained; it is
only asked that the powers ensure a
tolerable government for Macedonia."

NUMEROUS SUCCESSES.

Imperial Troops Defeat Rebels in Monastir District.

Constantinople, Sept. 8.—Official
dispatches from Monastir furnish details of numerous successes of the imperial troops in that district. A body
of Bulgarians entrenched in the hills
between Lake Rodenik and the village
of Yelendie were attacked by the
troops and lost thirty-five men killed.
The remainder of the band, seeking
to escape pursuit, threw themselves
into the lake and were drowned. At
the village of Resna twenty-two insurgents were killed and around Florina
forty others perished.

In the district of Vihant two strong bands were annihilated. A body of revolutionists who were entrenched in the Sourasoural pass near Raslog
attacked a detachment of troops, but were repulsed with loss.

HARD FIGHTING REPORTED.

District of Okrida the Scene of Fierce
Struggle.

Sofia, Sept. 8.—Several fights are reported from the district of Losengrad.
At the Bashi Bazouk village of Sasa-
ra, the Turks lost twenty men. At Tersidere a band fought three hundred soldiers all day with the result that
the Turks had thirty-seven men killed,
while the insurgents lost five. At Prespan, in the Okrida district, fighting has long been proceeding between
insurgent bands and an army of twenty thousand Turks. The latter are reported to have lost over two hundred
killed or wounded. A band led by Yaako Stoyanoff has destroyed the village of Gorinokavie, Carlesograd,
a notorious haunt of Turkish brigands.

STRAINING EVERY NERVE.

Macedonians Trying to Force Bulgaria
Into War.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Sept. 8.—In official
quarters there is suspicious absence
of news from the interior of Macedonia
and also from Adrianople, and it is feared that the conditions there are steadily becoming worse. The Macedonian organizations are straining
every nerve to force Bulgaria into a
war. Large and small bands are
crossing the frontier of Northern Macedonia, where General Zontcheff and
Colonel Yankoff are organizing the insurrectionary movement, which is expected to break out in the valley of
the Struma before the end of the week.

Bite of a Woodtick Fatal.

Missoula, Mont., Sept. 8.—J. R.
Baskerville, a well known Associated Press operator, whose home was in Washington, D. C., died during the night of spotted fever, a malady peculiar to this part of Montana. It results from the bite of a woodtick and
baffles medical science. Mr. Basker-
ville was stricken on returning from an
outing in the mountains.

FACES TROUBLOUS TIMES.

Earl of Lonsdale Paints Gloomy Picture of Australia.

London, Sept. 8.—According to a
Sydney dispatch to the Daily Mail the
Earl of Lonsdale, before sailing, said:
"There is considerable trouble coming in Australia. The way of progress and making it almost impossible for the larger financial interests to enter the commonwealth. The political aspect of affairs is becoming worse and worse. The labor party is largely blameable. The workmen are cutting
their own throats and a considerable
exodus from Australia is probable. The country is overlegislated and the politicians overpaid. English workmen
earning twenty shilling a week are better off than Australian workmen earning fifty."

The Earl of Lonsdale, beside the
labor trouble, probably had in mind
the growing strength of the country
party in Australia, led by the powerful organ the Sydney Bulletin, which
openly urges separation from the mother country. In its cartoons Great Britain is significantly represented as
"John Bull Cohen." Since the establishment of the commonwealth the
growth of the country party threatens
to replace the influence formerly
wielded by the towns.

ATTITUDE OF PATIENCE.

State Department Waiting on Columbia Government.

Washington, Sept. 8.—The state department has received a routine message from Mr. Beaupre, the American
minister at Bogota, acknowledging the
receipt of Secretary Hay's cablegram
of Aug. 26, stating that the Washing-
ton government would enter in no engagement which would hamper the
president's freedom of action under
the law.

This was all the cablegram stated,
although it has been the basis for
speculative reports about Mr. Beaupre's ideas of the Bogota situation. The state department's attitude is one of dignified patience. No indication of
its course of action in the event that
the Colombian congress rejects or
amends the treaty will be forthcoming
until the time for the exchange of ratifications expires Sept. 22.

ABOLISHES COMPETITION.

Two Pennsylvania Coal Concerns Con-
solidate.

Pittsburg, Sept. 7.—Official sanction was given to the purchase of the
control of the Monongahela River
Consolidated Coal and Coke company
during the day by the board of directors of the Pittsburg Coal company.
The deal is not a merger of the two
companies and there is no intention
of making it a merger, according to
the official statement of President
Frank L. Robbins, the chief figure in the negotiations. It will, however,
bring the river coal combination under
the direction of the Pittsburg Coal
company in the future and there will be
no competition in the sales departments.

DINED IN LONDON.

Banquet to United States Exchange
Commission.

London, Sept. 8.—The members of
the United States International exchange commission, in anticipation of
their departure for New York on Sept.
9, dined with the members of the British commission at the Carlton
hotel. In a general discussion of the work of the commission the British
commissioners expressed their congratulations on the successful result
of the commission's labors. Besides
the members of the commission United States Ambassador Choate, the Mexican and Chinese ministers, ex-
United States Senator Turner and
General J. W. Foster were present.

BUTCHERS RESIST MEAT TRUST.

They Organize an Independent Packing Plant.

Waterloo, Ia., Sept. 8.—Seeking independence of the meat trust and the
packing houses, upon which the average meat market has become dependent in the past few years, the butchers
of Waterloo have formed a company
and will erect a packing house that
will supply their respective markets
with all kinds of meats that the retailers now have to purchase of the big
packing houses of Chicago, Omaha and other points. The new company is capitalized at $20,000, and a plant will
be erected at once.

COLORADO DEMOCRATS.

State Convention Nominates Candidate for Supreme Judge.

Denver, Sept. 8.—The Democratic
state convention met in this city during the day for the purpose of nominating a candidate for judge of the supreme court. No other nominations
are to be made this year. Adair Wilson of Durango, former judge of the court of appeals, was nominated for judge of the supreme court on the first ballot.

Russian Government Confirms Chinese
Agreement.

London, Sept. 8.—A dispatch from Peking to the Times says that in a
note sent to the Wai Wu Pu on Sunday, M. Lessar, Russian minister, gave
an engagement that Newchwang and Mukden province should be evacuated
on Oct. 8 and confirmed the Chinese
agreement to open Mukden and Ta-
tungkiao to foreign trade.

Welsh Tin Strike Ends.

Swansea, Wales, Sept. 8.—The lock-
out in the tinplate industry in South
Wales, due to a long standing wage
dispute, which began on Aug. 29, has
terminated as the result of a decision
reached at a joint meeting of the
masters and men to refer all the questions in dispute to arbitration. Twenty to thirty thousand men were involved.

Three Perish in Mine Fire.

Springer, N. M., Sept. 8.—Mine No.
1 of the Dawson Fuel company caught fire and is now burning. In room No.
8 of the mine were Shapiro Ragel and Miguel Zalazar, both of Mexico, and a negro, known as Phil, all of whom perished.

AN ASTONISHING OFFER!
IF FOR ANY REASON WE FAIL TO CURE YOUR CATARRRH
of the head, nose, throat, lungs or stomach in any stage the treatment costs you nothing.
You doubtless have catarrh and want to be cured. You have tried nearly everything.
Yet there is only one absolutely known cure for catarrh in America, and that is MED-ERINE, the great Blood and Catarrh cure. It acts directly upon the mucous membrane through the blood, opens up the nasal passages, soothes and allays all inflammation of the affected parts, reaches the seat of the disease by filtering, cleansing and purifying the blood. MEDERINE has revolutionized the treatment and cure of Catarrh, and created the greatest sensation in medical circles.
Thousands of Catarrh Sufferers in every section of the country bear testimony to being cured of CATARRH by the only remedy that cures MEDERINE.

A Case of Nasal Catarrh.
John L. Parks of Richmond, Ind., says: "Your MED-ERINE is a wonder. I had a bad case of Catarrh of the Head or Nasal Organs. For years I suffered from this disease. I tried almost everything that was advised without any appreciable benefit. Finally I saw your MEDERINE advertised, and concluded as a last resort to try a bottle of it. I used two courses of your treatment according to directions, and today I consider myself cured and free from the disease in any form."

Bordering on Insanity.
J. M. Lynch of Kansas City, Mo., writes: "I hardly know how to express to you my thanks for the good that MEDERINE has done me. I was a great sufferer from Catarrh of the Head. I was in a state bordering on insanity, with ringing sounds in my ears. I was easily tired out. The least exertion resulted in aching head rapidly. I commenced to take MEDERINE, and in two months it cured me. I have no pains in the head, sleep well, eat heartily and am gaining my flesh
faster than I lost it."

Write MEDERINE REMEDY CO., Duluth, Minn., for their system of treatment. All letters answered. Illustrated booklet containing testimonials of cures mailed free.

PRICE $1, PER BOTTLE. Sent express prepaid if your druggist 6 BOTTLES FOR $5.
Does not carry MEDERINE in stock.

MEDERINE OINTMENT The new treatment for Eczema, Salt Rheum,
and all itching Sores, Boils and Ulcers. 50c per box.

MEDERINE SOAP For toilet, bath and surgery, visibly cleanses the skin, a complete sanitizing preparation for Bandages and all scalp and skin diseases. Price 50c.

PROCEEDS UNCHECKED

WORK OF EXTERMINATION GOES
STEADILY ON IN ALL DIS-TRICTS OF MACEDONIA.

DANGER OF CONFLAGRATION

POWERS WILL NOT INTERFERE
UNTIL AFTER CZAR AND AUS-
TRIAN EMPEROR MEET.

London, Sept. 8.—Special dispatches
from the near East add little fresh
news regarding the situation in the Balkans. All the correspondents at Constantinople emphasize the apparent
danger of war with Bulgaria, while
the Sofia correspondents are equally
insistent as to the prudent and correct attitude of Prince Ferdinand and
his government.

Accounts from both Turkish and insurgent sources of the operations in Macedonia show that the work of ex-
termination is proceeding unchecked,
and, although apparently realizing the
danger of a conflagration, the powers
are making some attempt to interfere.
It is believed that nothing of a serious
nature will be done until after the
meeting of the czar and Emperor
Francis Joseph at Vienna, when it may
be too late.

The insurgents are now said to number 26,000 well armed and efficiently
commanded men. Their leaders seemingly will stop at nothing to secure resources for their equipment.

A dispatch to the Times from Mon-
astir says:
"In Turkish circles war with Bulgaria is thought to be imminent.
Hilmi Pasha, inspector general of Mac-
edonia, himself says he sees no other
solution. The final reserves are
warned to hold themselves in readiness
and orders have been issued to the
principal towns to supply horses and
money and otherwise to aid the military preparations."

WOULD ONLY MEAN RUIN.

Bulgaria Not Anxious to Engage in War.

London, Sept. 8.—A dispatch to the Times from Varna, Bulgaria, says:
"The ministers are returning to Sofia. No aggressive action will be taken on this side. It is perfectly understood that Bulgaria has not a single friend in Europe and a policy of adventure could only result in ruin-
ing the country. Prince Ferdinand's
decision can hardly provoke adverse
comment even in Germany, where
there is an obvious eagerness to precipitate a Turko-Bulgarian war. The
prospects that some benefit might ac-
cure to Bulgaria by the Balkan question leading to a conflict between the
great powers has not entered into the
calculations of the Bulgarian government. No vain hopes of territorial
aggrandizement are entertained; it is
only asked that the powers ensure a
tolerable government for Macedonia."

NUMEROUS SUCCESSES.

Imperial Troops Defeat Rebels in Monastir District.

Constantinople, Sept. 8.—Official
dispatches from Monastir furnish details of numerous successes of the imperial troops in that district. A body
of Bulgarians entrenched in the hills
between Lake Rodenik and the village
of Yelendje were attacked by the
troops and lost thirty-five men killed.
The remainder of the band, seeking
to escape pursuit, threw themselves
into the lake and were drowned. At
the village of Resna twenty-two insurgents were killed and around Florina
forty others perished.

In the district of Vishani two strong
bands were annihilated.
A body of revolutionists who were entrenched in the Sourssourol pass near Raslog attacked a detachment of troops, but were repulsed with loss.

HARD FIGHTING REPORTED.

District of Okrida the Scene of Fierce
Struggle.

Sofia, Sept. 8.—Several fights are reported from the district of Lozengrad.
At the Bashi Bazouk village of Sasaza, the Turks lost twenty men. At Tersidze a band fought three hundred
soldiers all day with the result that
the Turks had thirty-seven men killed,
while the insurgents lost five. At Prespan, in the Okrida district, fighting has long been proceeding between
insurgent bands and an army of twenty
thousand Turks. The latter are reported to have lost over two hundred
killed or wounded. A band led by Yaako Stoyanoff has destroyed the village of Gorinokavie, Carlesograd,
a notorious haunt of Turkish brigands.

STRAINING EVERY NERVE.

Macedonians Trying to Force Bulgaria
Into War.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Sept. 8.—In official
quarters there is suspicious absence
of news from the interior of Macedonia
and also from Adrianople, and it is
feared that the conditions there are
steadily becoming worse. The Macedonian organizations are straining
every nerve to force Bulgaria into a
war. Large and small bands are
crossing the frontier of Northern Mac-
edonia, where General Zontcheff and
Colonel Yankoff are organizing the in-
surrectionary movement, which is expected to break out in the valley of
the Struma before the end of the
week.

Bite of a Woodtick Fatal.

Missoula, Mont., Sept. 8.—J. R.
Baskerville, a well known Associated Press operator, whose home was in Washington, D. C., died during the night of spotted fever, a malady peculiar to this part of Montana. It results from the bite of a woodtick and
baffles medical science. Mr. Basker-
ville was stricken on returning from an
outing in the mountains.

FACES TROUBLOUS TIMES.
Earl of Lonsdale Paints Gloomy Picture of Australia.

London, Sept. 8.—According to a
Sydney dispatch to the Daily Mail the
Earl of Lonsdale, before sailing, said:
"There is considerable trouble coming in Australia. The legislators are making it almost impossible
for the larger financial interests to enter the commonwealth. The political aspect of affairs is becoming worse and worse. The labor party is largely
blameable. The workmen are cutting
their own throats and a considerable
exodus from Australia is probable. The
country is overlegislated and the politicians overpaid. English workmen
earning twenty shilling a week are better off than Australian workmen earning fifty."

The Earl of Lonsdale, beside the
labor trouble, probably had in mind
the growing strength of the country
party in Australia, led by the powerful organ the Sydney Bulletin, which
openly urges separation from the
mother country. In its cartoons Great Britain is significantly represented as
"John Bull Cohen." Since the establishment of the commonwealth the
growth of the country party threatens
to replace the influence formerly
wielded by the towns.

ATTITUDE OF PATIENCE.

State Department Waiting on Colombia Government.

Washington, Sept. 8.—The state department has received a routine message from Mr. Beaupre, the American
minister at Bogota, acknowledging the
receipt of Secretary Hay's cablegram
of Aug. 26, stating that the Washing-
ton government would enter in no engagement which would hamper the
president's freedom of action under
the law.

This was all the cablegram stated,
although it has been the basis for
speculative reports about Mr. Beaupre's views of the Bogota situation. The
state department's attitude is one of
dignified patience. No indication of
its course of action in the event that
the Colombian congress rejects or
amends the treaty will be forthcoming
until the time for the exchange of
ratifications expires Sept. 22.

ABOLISHES COMPETITION.

Two Pennsylvania Coal Concerns Con-
solidate.

Pittsburg, Sept. 7.—Official sanction was given to the purchase of the
control of the Monongahela River
Consolidated Coal and Coke company
during the day by the board of directors of the Pittsburg Coal company.
The deal is not a merger of the two
companies and there is no intention
of making it a merger, according to
the official statement of President
Frank L. Robbins, the chief figure in
the negotiations. It will, however,
bring the river coal combination under
the direction of the Pittsburg Coal
company in the future and there will be
no competition in the sales departments.

DINED IN LONDON.

Banquet to United States Exchange
Commission.

London, Sept. 8.—The members of
the United States international ex-
change commission, in anticipation of
their departure for New York on Sept.
9, dined with the members of the British commission at the Carlton
hotel. In a general discussion of the work of the commission the British
commissioners expressed their congratulations on the successful result
of the commission's labors. Besides
the members of the commission United States Ambassador Choate, the Mexican and Chinese ministers, ex-
United States Senator Turner and
General J. W. Foster were present.

BUTCHERS RESIST MEAT TRUST.

They Organize an Independent Pack-
ing Plant.

Waterloo, Ia., Sept. 8.—Seeking independence of the meat trust and the
packing houses, upon which the average meat market has become dependent in the past few years, the butchers
of Waterloo have formed a company
and will erect a packing house that
will supply their respective markets
with all kinds of meats that the retail-
ers now have to purchase of the big
packing houses of Chicago, Omaha and
other points. The new company is
capitalized at $20,000, and a plant will
be erected at once.

COLORADO DEMOCRATS.

State Convention Nominates Candidate for Supreme Judge.

Denver, Sept. 8.—The Democratic
state convention met in this city during the day for the purpose of nominating a candidate for judge of the supreme court. No other nominations
are to be made this year. Adair Wilson of Durango, former judge of the
court of appeals, was nominated for judge of the supreme court on the first ballot.

TO OPEN MANCHURIAN PORTS.

Russian Government Confirms Chinese
Agreement.

London, Sept. 8.—A dispatch from Peking to the Times says that in a
note sent to the Wai Wu Pu on Sunday, M. Lessar, Russian minister, gave
an engagement that Newchwang and Mukden province should be evacuated
on Oct. 8 and confirmed the Chinese
agreement to open Mukden and Ta-
tungkiao to foreign trade.

Welsh Lin Strike Ends.

Swansea, Wales, Sept. 8.—The lock-
out in the tinplate industry in South
Wales, due to a long standing wage
dispute, which began on Aug. 29, has
terminated as the result of a decision
reached at a joint meeting of the
masters and men to refer all the questions in dispute to arbitration. Twenty to thirty thousand men were involved.

Three Perish in Mine Fire.

Springer, N. M., Sept. 8.—Mine No.
1 of the Dawson Fuel company caught
fire and is now burning. In room No.
8 of the mine were Shapiro Ragel and Miguel Zalazar, both of Mexico, and a negro, known as Phil, all of whom perished.
